CHILDREN'S THEATRE SERIES

School Field Trip Opportunities!

The City of North Charleston Cultural Arts Department's Children's Theatre Series provides an excellent field trip opportunity for students in the Tri-County area. Daycares, families, and seniors are also welcome to enjoy the exciting presentations. Unless otherwise noted, the minimal charge of $2.00 per child enables all adult chaperones to attend FREE. Admission fee is waived for students attending Title I schools. Schools are responsible for their own transportation to the North Charleston Performing Arts Center, located at 5001 Coliseum Drive, North Charleston, SC 29418. All performances begin at 10:00 am and last approximately one hour. Groups of 10+ must register in advance. Reservation forms are available on the Arts & Culture section of the City's website at northcharleston.org. Payment is due at the door by cash, credit card, money order, or check made payable to the City of North Charleston. For more information, call (843) 740-5854.

All Children's Theatre performances are designed in accordance with state curriculum standards. Educators may visit the performing groups' websites or contact them directly to access study guides and lesson plans.

2018/19 CHILDREN'S THEATRE SCHEDULE

"JUNIE B. JONES IS NOT A CROOK" presented by Georgia Ensemble Theatre Thursday, November 29, 2018

This play by Allison Gregory is based on the beloved Junie B. Jones book series by Barbara Park. Someone took Junie B.'s new black furry mittens, and they didn't even put them in the Lost and Found! Also, the new boy in school thinks Junie B. is a nutball just because she was laughing at recess! Junie B. is on a mission to prove she's not a nutball, avenge her black furry mittens, and maybe get a great new colorful pen, too. Georgia Ensemble Theatre is an award-winning professional theatre company producing musicals, comedies, dramas, and first class educational opportunities for more than 25 years. The company is the resident professional theatre at the Roswell Cultural Arts Center and has earned a reputation for the quality and diversity of its plays. More information can be found at www.get.org. (For elementary/all ages)

"BLACK HISTORY HALL OF FAME" presented by Bright Star Touring Theatre Friday, February 1, 2019

This fast-paced adventure through the Black History Hall of Fame is led by Dr. Daisy and Professor Paisley. In just 45 minutes, young audiences will be introduced to more than a dozen groundbreakers and hall-of-famers that have largely contributed to shaping our nation's past, present, and future. Featured individuals range from Maya Angelou and Aretha Franklin to the Buffalo Soldiers and Mae Jemison, and that's just to name a few! The 2018/19 season marks Bright Star Touring Theatre's 16th anniversary of providing professional theatre to young audiences! The group will travel across the nation, providing more than 1,400 performances to young audiences in nearly every imaginable venue. More information can be found at www.brightstartheatre.com. (For grades K-5)

"THE THREE LITTLE PIGS" presented by FBN Productions, Inc. Thursday, April 4, 2019

In this unique production writer John Davies transforms the timeless tale of The Three Little Pigs into a comedia opera with music by Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart. Despina the pig wants to build a house better than the straw and stick homes her brothers Giovanni and Cherubino have constructed, so she goes to the library and learns how to build a house of brick. How will each pig's house stand up against Wolfgang Bigbad's huffing and puffing? FBN Productions, Inc. has been bringing together young professional opera singers and the best operas written for young audiences in mind throughout the Southeast since 1994. The group promotes music-drama as an expression of human experience by producing operas, offering annual touring performances, and co-sponsoring Carolina Opera Experience with Opera at USC. More information can be found at www.operaforkids.org. (For grades PreK-5)

PERFORMANCES SUBJECT TO CHANGE. ADVANCE REGISTRATION IS ENCOURAGED & APPRECIATED.
